

Alexander Piela
17-A Dayton Lane
Ocean City, MD 21842
C: 240-678-5763 H: 410-289-2539
Website: www.alexanderpiela.com

Current Positions/Projects:

Freelance Traffic Reporter:

Reliant Broadcast Services:

- Reports and produces morning traffic for WNAV, Annapolis, WTTR, Westminster, WCEI, Easton, WINX, Cambridge, as well as for the SOMAR Radio Group in Southern, MD.
- Produces and reports traffic for radio group "The Highway Stations", Covering San Bernadino and Barstow, CA along with Las Vegas and Laughlin, NV.

Reports transmitted as MP3 audio reports via FTP.

Traffic Tips Traffic Network:

- Northern Delaware radio stations, including WDOV, WDSB, WRDX, WILM, WVUD, and others. Transmits reports from home studio via ISDN line, Internet MP3 audio via FTP, and phone.
- Produces traffic reports via internet scanners, cameras, driver cell phone tips, and personal calls to State Police.
- Personally set-up and maintain ISDN line operation.
(Recently I have been working on "stand-by" with this traffic service)

MisterOceanCity.com LLC:

Company site is MisterOceanCity.com
An information site for the resort area of Ocean City, Maryland.
I created and maintain the site. Just over 170,000 visitors since September, 2007.
Promotes and advertises my summer rental property, The Ohana.

Previous Employment:

Metro Networks / Silver Spring , MD 2000-2007

Traffic Anchor/Airborne Reporter:

Worked well in high pressure, fast paced environment. Assimilated information quickly and sent traffic reports to DC's top stations, including, WTOP, WPGC-AM, B-101.5, and on camera for Channel 9 as well as DC traffic for Sirius Satellite Radio.

Airborne Traffic Reporter for WTOP and WUSA-TV 9 in Robinson R-44 chopper, requiring camera and microwave operation. I have clearance to fly in certain secure areas of Washington , D.C.

TRAFFAX of Delmarva / Lewes , DE 1996-2003

Operations Manager/ Traffic Anchor:

-Delivered nearly 100 reports per day to 11 radio and TV stations in Delaware and Maryland 's Eastern Shore . Gathered information from police agencies, scanners, and web cameras.

-Bona-fide member of several morning shows, contributing to successful ratings.

-Managed studio ISDN lines and services, including troubleshooting and telephone repair issues.

-Made numerous contacts working with people at the Maryland SHA and Del-Dot.

-Became the "Most Recognized Voice/Name" on the DelMarVa Peninsula.

WHTF-Starview 92.7 / York, PA 1988-1996

Morning Show On-Air Sidekick/Production Director:

Reported news and entertainment topics. Played roles, did impersonations, and improvised comedic repartee.

As creative director for seven years, wrote approximately 10,000 pieces of copy and produced and voiced commercials.

Mobile Disc Jockey. Speciaized in weddings, but also did parties, reunions and other functions.

Once hosted a party for Peter Coors of "Coors Beer" fame. Worked with several agencies, most notably with "Class Act", operated by Diane Dayton, Lancaster, PA.

Personal Info/Special Projects:

Marywood University / Scranton , PA 1980-1984

Bachelor of Arts / Communication Arts Major

Bishop O'Hara HS / Dunmore , PA 1976-1980

Membership in AFTRA and SAG (Screen Actors Guild)

(currently inactive)

Background artist for the following films: "Gods and Generals" (Turner Films), "Red Dragon," "Tuck Everlasting" (Disney), and "The Wire" (HBO).

Played as extra in NBC's "Homicide: Life in the Streets," February 1997 and January 1998.

Played a principal for Greystone Productions "Chamberlain at Gettysburg" and "Lee at Gettysburg."

Supporting actor for the Steel Tree Films production "Rat Bastard." Played the part of Melvin.

Mobile DJ since 1985 with my own outfit "Monster Sound". Continued for nearly 10 years through radio stations and talent agencies.

Familiar with Autism issues and children's education with Autism Spectrum disorders.

Fluent in German, understands Polish language(s)

Hobbies: surfing, motorcycles, guitar, world and American history, Civil War reenacting, O Gauge trains.

Athletic, non-smoker

Qualified for Navy Flight School in 1987: passed four-part test in top third percentile.

Eagle Scout, December 1979